

Auburn Community Church has been richly blessed. Pastor Charles Brown has been here one full year now and the church is flourishing under his leadership. Attendance and giving are up; Sunday School and Youth activities are a reality; the choir is thriving; Bible Study has resumed; and mission projects are in place. Renovation of the parsonage is ongoing, and the drive to replace the antiquated windows in our church has been completed in only one year: a $17,000 investment. All reasons to praise God!

In gratefulness for all we have, we need to consider what we can do for our church. The church's bills are ongoing and need to be paid regularly. The cost of maintenance, electricity, supplies, and salaries, create a constant need for money. Please consider prayerfully what you can give in 2008. A pledge for regular donations will help the church leaders know how to plan to meet their obligations.
